

DISTRICT COMPETITION OF POLISH LANGUAGE

FOR PRIMARY SCHOOLS

On 16 April the District Competition of Polish Language for Primary Schools was organized in our school. 24 students from schools in our district took part in the competition. They had to pass the qualifying test at their schools to enter the district competition. Our school was represented by Patrycja Powieśnik, 6th Grade student, she was supervised by Mrs. Monika Kowalska, her Polish teacher, when preparing for the test. The final test aimed at checking students' knowledge of Polish linguistics and literature. The range of required skills included syntax and phonetics. The participants had to be also prepared for the questions concerning two novels: The Hobbit or There and Back Again by J.R.R. Tolkien and The Boys of Paul Street by F. Molnar. The competition was under the patronage of: the Mayor of Mszana, the District Teacher Training Centre and the District Governor of Wodzislaw Slaski. The competition started from the official greetings by the Polish language methodological adviser - Mrs. Katarzyna Hawel, the headmaster of Zespol Szkol in Mszana - Mrs. Dorota Pukowiec and the deputy of the Mayor of Mszana - Mr. Błażej Tatarczyk. After the test struggle students and teachers had an occasion to watch great performances of our talented students: Zuzia Halfar, Mateusz Bohm and Daria Toman, Wiktoria Grzeszkiewicz, Marcin Modzelewski, Nikola Sokor and Marcin Reclik. At the end the jury appointed four winners of the competition:

1st place – Olga Wilk, Primary School number 3 in Wodzislaw Slaski

1st place – Kamil Pawelec, Primary School in Rogow

2nd place - Jakub Szymanowski, Primary School number 3 in Rydułtowy

2nd place - Szymon Cygan, Primary School in Pszow

Congratulations to all the winners and participants!
